

UCLA PD CRIME ALERT

April 29, 2009

BIKE THEFT ARRESTS

On April 24, 2009 Mitchel Johnson of Los Angeles, was arrested for Petty Theft of a bicycle. At 1:42 a.m. alert staff members called UCLA PD after observing Johnson attempting to take several bikes from the Wooden Center Bike racks. UCLA Police Officer Ruiz arrested Johnson as he rode away with a bike from the bike rack.

On April 27, 2009 Todd Beacham of Los Angeles was arrested for Grand Theft of a bicycle. At 1:04 a.m. UCLA PD Community Service Officer observed Beacham casing bicycles at the bottom of Covell Commons steps. UCLA Police Officer K. Salas arrested Beacham after he rode away with a stolen bike. Beacham admitted to taking the bike because it wasn't locked up.

Both Johnson and Beacham were taken into custody without further incident. Both cases have been submitted to the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office for review.

UCLA Police are looking for the owners of the two stolen bikes. The bike stolen from Covell Commons is a Blue & Silver Giant Sedona DS. The bike stolen from the Wooden Center is a red & white Schwinn Legacy Men's Beach Cruiser, 26" frame.

RECOVERED BIKE/WOODEN CENTER	RECOVERED BIKE/COVELL COMMONS

Bike Stolen from Wooden Center Bike Rack, similar to one pictured, not actual bike	Bike Stolen from Covell Commons Bike Rack, actual bike stolen

If your bicycle was stolen during these time frames, at these locations and you are able to verify ownership of your bike, please contact UCLA PD at (310) 825-1491. Please reference case #09-1093, or #09-1127.